

A Blessing from the Animal Kingdom

From the beginning we have walked this Earth with you, among you with no distinction of spirit for we were all in spirit together. Then, as time changed you changed, we did not. We have always held the sacred space in spirit for you. We hold it still even today.

We have been called many things - the animal kingdom, a sacred brotherhood, and we are all these things. We have been given a directive to serve as WayShowers for humanity, to be here for you, with you, to share what you go through, what the earth goes through. We bring messages for the healing of the Earth and for the healing of humanity.

We wait, we watch, at times we die, yet we judge you not. We have no ill will, we bear only the deepest love and affection for you. We carry such messages of light, of life, of love and spirit and we wait patiently to share them with you - for as the angels, we cannot force them upon you. We too, must wait to be asked.

There is a time of coming for the Animal Kingdom in all its sacred glory and through that time, we're here now to tell you how hopeful, how delighted we all are that humanity is beginning to awaken. You never have to walk alone, you never have to carry your burdens alone, you never have to struggle or go through your spiritual journey alone, for we are here with you - whether it be a chance encounter, whether it be as part of the natural kingdom, whether it be as your own family members, we are with you and we are for you always.

Our lives are given in service of humanity. We choose, we ask, to come here to this earth plane and we live the lives that best serve to carry the messages of Spirit for and to be examples to you in love, in our fur family and in Spirit.

You are the bright lights, you are the hope for the future - you have found the spark of Spirit and you follow it and you now light the way for others to understand more deeply the role of the animal kingdom. All you ever have to do is call upon us and one or many of us will answer you. We will be there beside you, if not in physical body, in spirit, in thought intuition and we will share with you our messages for humanity and the earth and you can give the messages to the rest of humanity.

We come now in unified voice and spirit and we bring you so very many blessings to support you in your journeys. We know your hearts to be pure and your spirits to be willing to help heal. It is no longer about looking at the past and finding fault, there is enough of that going on in the world already. What we come to you now for is healing and to help you help humanity to move forward.

All that happened before was no coincidence. It happened with and through Spirit. It happened with our consent and agreement. Countless ones of you received the messages and the understandings, countless ones didn't, yet there will always be opportunities to hear, to feel, to change, to love - for always our message is of our love for you our willingness to walk with you, to support and guide you and we're honored always to do so.

We await with hope again the time when there is no division between us as it was in the beginning. Because of you, your work and your hearts, unity is now possible. We eagerly anticipate the day when this will be so again. As this year ends and you begin to enter the energy of the New Year, we give you our hearts, our voices, our spirits, our hearts' love and our undying gratitude.
